g. The Security Education Group (SEG), Office of Security, is nearing the completion of its project revising the EOD Security Indoctrination and Security Awareness Programs. As part of this effort, a videotape has been prepared wherein the Director of Security provides a general overview of basic security practices and procedures. Other SEG efforts in this area include additional videotape presentations, a new "generation" of slides, and related briefing materials.

h. On 15 July the Director of Security met with his State Department counterpart and officials from other agencies with representation abroad. The meeting was dedicated to discussions and plans for enhanced security in American posts overseas to lessen the threat posed by incidents such as the Beirut bombing. As a result of this meeting there is an effort to develop a formal interagency agreement with emphasis directed at combating the various threats which could be mounted against U.S. installations overseas.
